

Kings Stanley Playgroup Weekly News

Well despite the rain and high winds we have still managed to get outside this week, the children really enjoyed seeing the wind blow the bubbles everywhere. There has been some lovely interactions and sharing observed, especially whilst building the train track. The children have enjoyed talking about themselves as babies (if you haven't emailed a baby photo, please do so ASAP). We have engaged in lots of different mark making, e.g., in the sensory play shaving foam and using chinks outside. And we really enjoyed using scissors to cut the herbs and adding this to the play dough.
